

Lorin na min

An anonymous couple, with teaching artist Sun Tailor

Nani, Lorin na min (Go to sleep, my Lorin)

Close your eyes, sleepy eyes
Let the night inside of you
I am here, still alive
By your side to comfort you

Long was the day and tomorrow is nigh
Holy land, promised land
Right outside our window
Holy land, promised land
Right outside our window
Now we are here, now we are fine

Nani, Lorin na min (Go to sleep, my Lorin)

Sweet Lori, dearest child
Our old life is over now
You will live, you will love
You will make our people proud

One day you'll grow and turn into a flower
In your eyes there is light
I know you can make it out
In your eyes there is light
I know you can make it out
In your eyes I see our hope

Nani, Lorin na min (Go to sleep, my Lorin)

Close your eyes, sleepy eyes
I know you can make it out

Close your eyes, sleepy eyes
I know you can make it out

Close your eyes, sleepy eyes
I know you can make it out

Close your eyes, sleepy eyes
I know you can make it out
